

MURDER HORNET

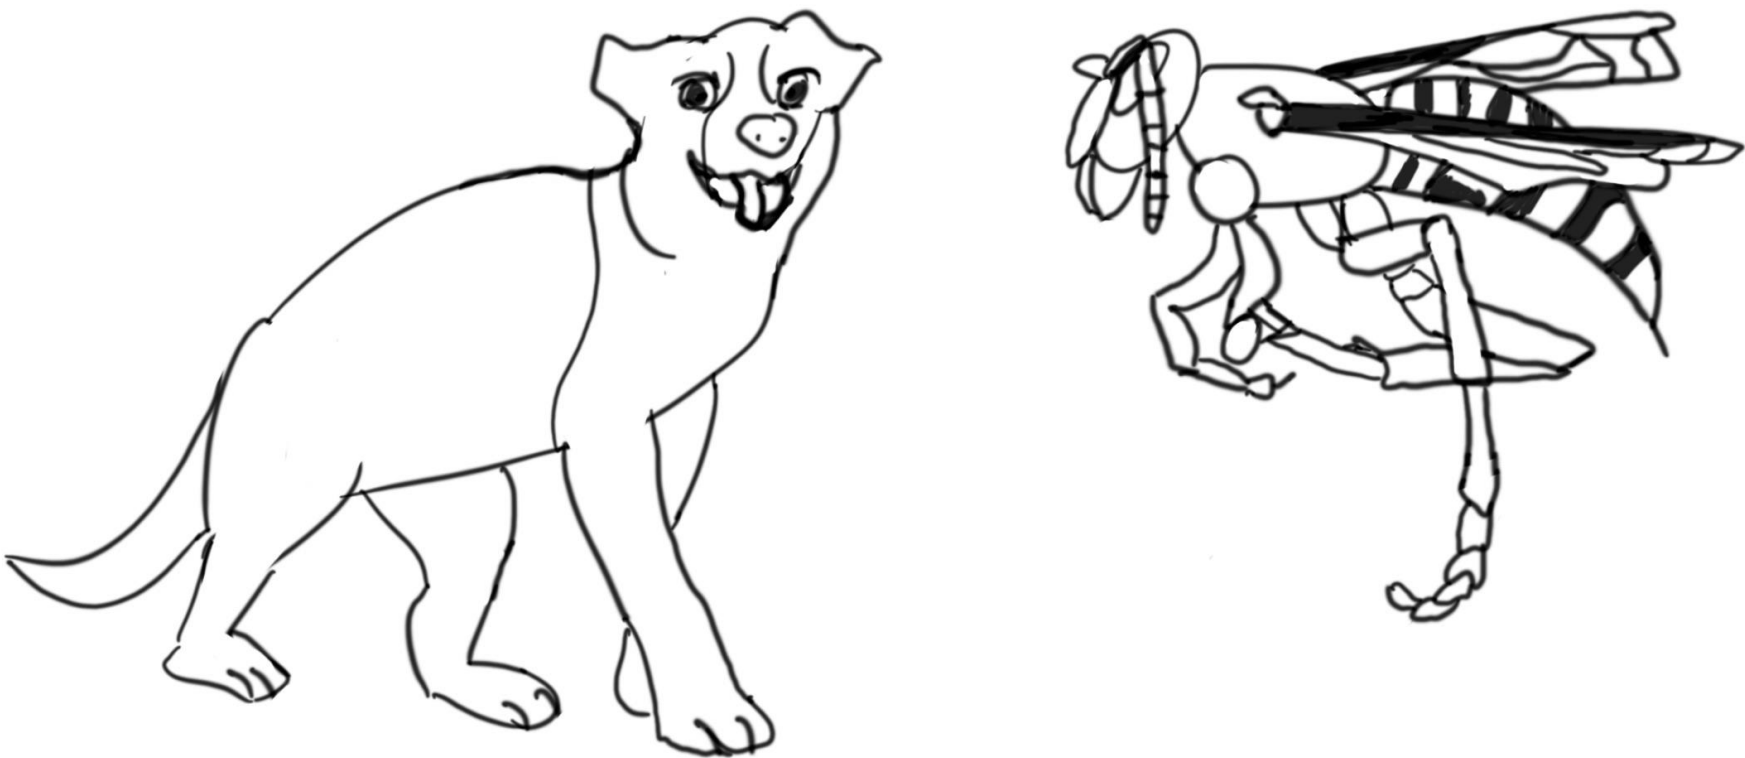

THE COLONY IS COMING

This morning large nests have been found close to the town of Wacton where hornet drones the size of dogs are heading into town. An expert exterminator known as Ivan will defend Wacton from the incoming hornets, with special types of weapons for killing these giant bugs, though he requests to use people’s belongings to power up his weapons when necessary (which has been approved), but ultimately they will be used to take down the Queen Hornet.

The giant hornets are expected to migrate to Wacton by this afternoon, all residence must leave their belongings and evacuate town. Ivan suspects that these hornets will try to claim Wacton’s buildings as their territory. His ultimate goal is to take down their queen but will terminate any hornets that come into his way.
